ACCOMMODATION

IN

CANADA'S NATIONAL PARKS

Accommodation in Canada's National Parks ranges from luxury hotels to bungalows, chalets, lodges, cottages and cabins. It is designed to suit almost every taste and purse.

All tourist accommodation within National Park boundaries is subject to inspection and approval by the National Parks administration.

Public facilities for accommodation are listed in this folder, and the names of agencies handling reservations may be obtained from the parks superintendents.

Rates quoted are the latest available but may be subject to minor revision from time to time.

Unless visitors are carrying their own camping equipment, or have cabin trailers, it is advisable to arrange accommodation in advance.

National Parks accommodation is usually in attractive locations, easily accessible and close to park recreational facilities. It is being expanded progressively to meet the needs of an ever-growing number of visitors.
