Some of Parks Canada's favourite places will be busy this year. Explore hidden gems in places that are a bit unknown to get away from it all.

3

TRAVEL IN THE SHOULDER SEASONS

Spring and fall are both exciting and beautiful seasons to explore Canada's national treasures. Watch life come to bloom or change colours right before your eyes.

4

HAVE A WINTER ADVENTURE

For a true Canadian experience, there are many kinds of winter activities available in Parks Canada places. From cozy horse-drawn sleigh rides to skating on the world's longest skating rink.

5

TRAVEL MIDWEEK

Avoid the weekend rush, especially long weekends. Travel during the week when the crowds are quieter.

6

RESERVE YOUR SPOT

You can reserve a campsite or a variety of other accommodation options ahead of time by using the Parks Canada Reservation Service. Accommodations are easier to come by in the shoulder seasons.

7

GO ON A SPECIAL TOUR

To get a more exclusive experience, take in a guided tour or hike and listen to thrilling stories from those who know the parks and sites best!

8

BE AN EARLY BIRD

Get out early in the day. Birds and other wildlife are most active at this time; and the lighting makes for fabulous photos. It can feel like you have the whole place to yourself.

9

Many animals rest during midday and can be seen travelling at dusk. There is a greater chance of seeing wildlife at these times. Remember to give animals the space they need. Your responsible behavior contributes to their survival – and your own safety.
